Français 1: Activity 10 from the same book-page (110) handout page from last night:

- Read the action it says that the person is doing, and then figure out which special expression with "faire" forms, is needed, to tell what they must be doing (paying attention? taking a trip? playing a sport game? taking a walk? making a pizza?).

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:

- RE-write the French sentence that they give. TRANSLATE THAT into English.
- Then, write the NEW special "faire" expression that you need... and then TRANSLATE THAT into English, too.

EX:

So... if it said, "Elle visite Paris." the most logical "faire" expression would be, "she is taking a trip"... so you'd write, "Elle fait un voyage."

You write out:

Elle visite Paris. (= She is visiting Paris.)

Elle fait un voyage. (= she is taking a trip.)
