class everyday :

- 1 Your charged laptop
- 2 3-ring binder
- 3 Unit notes IN the binder rings (current and past unit notes)
- 4 Your Homework
- 5 Paper, pen[cil]

Coming to class without your charged laptop, and unit notes is a big no-no. You will receive disciplinary measures, starting with a call home.

♥ I love when my students are

- Organized (must use a 3-ring binder !!!!! )
- Cooperative
- Courteous
- Prepared (bring your notes and CHARGED laptop to class!!)

(Because you'll be much more successful!)

I get mean and grouchy and give detentions when my students are

- Rude
- Unprepared
- Loud
- Disorganized or unwilling to try

(Because I can't conduct class, others can't learn, you can't succeed)

Don't expect to pass if

- You don't do homework (I don't accept late homework!)
- You don't use your unit notes (VERY IMPORTANT!)
- You don't follow along in class

(Because you just won't get it... it takes practice and attention.)

Expect severe consequences if

- Your behavior is unacceptable (rude, impatient, etc.)
- Your absence is listed as unexcused (no points for homework due that day or assigned that day & referral & call home)
- You fail to immediately make up a missed test

HOMEWORK CALENDAR

IF YOU ARE ABSENT FOR A FIELD TRIP, or DOCTOR APPOINTMENT, etc. (non-illness absence):

You are required to consult our homework calendar and have the notes and assignment the day that you return to class.

The link for our homework calendar is at the top of our moodle, or you can find it directly on my PHS website.

IF YOU ARE ABSENT FOR ILLNESS:

You should do your best to keep up with homework by consulting the Homework Calendar, but you do technically have one day extra, if you really need it.

TARDIES:

Being on time to class =

• in the classroom • in YOUR seat • w/everything you need

by the time that the bell rings.

You risk being given a tardy if you are not ready,
as outlined above, when the bell rings.

BATHROOM / WATER:

It is up to my discretion whether or not I feel that you are wasting time getting back to class if you head to the bathroom once you've gotten to class. You may earn a tardy if I consider that you are not doing your best to get quickly back to class and prepared for the start of class.
